- Well we were to leave Allentown at on Friday 1/05/07 at 6:25 and arrive in Orlando at 8:55.Pm. We arrive at the airport 2hours early as instructed.Loaded on the plane a few mintures late, board sat on the plane for 40 min. when the pilot send we all had to go back to the terminal. We sat from approximately 7PM to 1AM, while a mechanic was flown in from St. Petersburg, Fl. to fix the with the part needed to fix the plane. My husband and I missed a very important function on Friday evening which was the reason for the trip. My husband sent a letter to the president of your company on January 12,2007.We got an 1 way voucher to use for each of us. We still do not think it is adequate compensation do to the fact that we missed the function, the auto rental we could not use, the hotel room that we were in briefly and overall inconvinence. We have another function to attend in Florida this up coming November and would like to use the foucher but are afraid this is going to happen again. It would have been better to give us a round trip voucher, not a one way. As Allentown does shut down at 8pm. Yes someone had pizza, water and soda sent in but did not get that till almost 11pm. That is a long time to wait!! It would be nice if you had a nonstop to Pittsburgh,Dulles or Myrtle Beach. These destinations would be full, this I know.
